

Sunset Springs Apartments

Affordable Housing

Summary of Household

Part I: List of all household members:

The following are who may be counted as household members: year-round occupants, absent children in cases where the parent is pursuing legal custody of the child; and members temporarily away, such as students at school, children placed in foster care, Armed Forces personnel on temporary assignment, etc.

- A. _____
- B. _____
- C. _____
- D. _____
- E. _____

Part II: Annual Income

Annual Income is the amount of gross income anticipated to be received during the 12-month period following certification (or recertification) of eligibility.

Regular Income

This covers traditional earned income such as wages and salaries, as well as assistance payments and benefits, such as Social Security, welfare, and pensions. It also includes payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment compensation, worker's compensation for injuries, and other periodic payments.

Household Member	List Source of Regular Income *	Contact Person	Contact's Phone Number with ext.	Case number (if applicable)
A.

* We will need third-party verification, this usually involves a letter from the source which states the amount of income that will be received. Examples of third-party verification are: Social Security letter of benefits, pension letters, welfare verify income through wages and salaries.statements, etc. We will contact employers to

Assets Income

Interest (Income) which is generated from savings/checking accounts, certificates of deposits, stocks and mutual funds, real estate, and other items held for investment purposes.

Household Member	Type of Asset Income  (savings, checking, money market, etc)	Name of Financial Institution	Phone Number	Account Number
A.

 We may need a copy of your most recent savings and/or checking account statement(s).